Dear Mr. Davenport:

On behalf of Mr. Dulles, I would like to acknowledge and thank you very much for your thoughtful letter of 22 September concerning the handling of hostile delegations to future meetings of the United Nations.

This is a matter which does not fall within the jurisdiction of the Central Intelligence Agency, as the National Security Act of 1947, which provided for the establishment of the CIA, further provided that it shall have no police, subpoena, law-enforcement powers, or internal security functions. However, I have taken the liberty of forwarding your letter to the Department of State for appropriate action.

Your courtesy in writing to us about this is indeed appreciated.

Sincerely,

Signed
